July Celebrations

Happy Independence Day from GCASAFV!

July 21st is Liberation Day

The Guam Coalition Against Sexual Assault & Family Violence wishes you all a Happy Liberation Day! 2017 Liberation Day's theme set forth by the Guam Liberation Historical Society is "Strength in Unity." As stated in the press release for this year's theme, "... we are stronger together than when we are alone. The principle of the theme is the primary basis of peace and happiness of a society and a nation. Unity brings greater safety and security." GCASAFV reminds our community that unity and peace starts at home. This year's theme represents how we can all come together to end the violence. When our community comes together in unity against violence, we create a safer, stronger, and prosperous future for all, where our community can live in liberation from violence and oppression.
