Presenter Biography

KALEILANI GRANT, trainer with the National Human Trafficking Training & Technical Assistant Center, is the Assistant Coordinator for the Department of the Attorney General’s Missing Child Center in Hawaii and assists law enforcement in recovering missing and exploited children. For over a decade Ms. Grant has contributed her expertise by working with government and non-government agencies to strengthen system response and combat human trafficking. She is a recent graduate of the Human Trafficking Leadership Academy hosted by the Office of Trafficking in Persons and part of the working group for U.S. Department of State, Senior Policy Operating Group to examine the role of demand reduction domestically and internationally. As a Native Hawaiian and survivor of sex trafficking, Ms. Grant believes in Ho’omau (the Native Hawaiian value of perseverance and persistence) – the value pushing you to continue to fulfill your purpose, to persevere in your efforts by renewing those efforts, and to perpetuate those that worked well. Anything worth having is worth working for -- A life of freedom is worth it.

This training event is funded in part by Grant #15JOVW-21-GG-00693-MUMU awarded by the US Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women (USDOJ/OVW); Grant #2201GUSDVC awarded by the Family Violence Prevention and Services/Grants to State Domestic Violence Coalitions, Administration for Children and Families, US Department of Health and Human Services; and Grant #STOP 2020-WF-AX-0014 and #15JOVW-21-GG-00558-MUMU provided by the Governor’s Community Outreach – Federal Programs Office, Office of the Governor of Guam, awarded by the USDOJ/OVW.
